

An abstract artwork featuring a large, grey, stylized elephant head in the background. A thick, yellow, curved line, resembling a banana, arches across the foreground. A black silhouette of a person is positioned in the center, appearing to interact with the elephant's trunk. The overall style is graphic and minimalist, using bold outlines and flat colors.

PG Essays

a special selection